Established in 1986 by Managing Director Wayne Palmer, Australian Security Supplies has grown rapidly in the very competitive market of security equipment. A.S.S. operate from centrally located, modern premises with good customer access.

Rapid growth has brought A.S.S. to now employ six full time staff to provide prompt and professional service. An extensive Distributor network ensures stock availability and support throughout Australia. A.S.S. also offers up to date training throughout it's entire product range and the back-up of it's Comprehensive Technical Support network.

A.S.S. is the South Australian Distributor of such renowned products and brands as follows

  - A comprehensive range of IP, HDTVI & Analog CCTV equipment & associated products, including Cameras, DVR, NVR, Image Processors and Transmission Systems
  - LT Security Inc. (LTS), Uniview (UNV), VIP Vision, X-View, Systems
  - Associated Networking components, Network & POE Switches, Baluns, Extenders, Ubiquiti Wireless(updated f/w, tested & set up to custom requirements), Cable, Connectors

  - Power supplies, UPS and equipment racks to suit any size task
  - Crow and Bosch alarm panels, detectors and wireless options
  - Access Control and Intercoms including VIP Vision, Fermvision, Aiphone, FSH, Padde and Nidac
  - Friendly S.A. local support and in-house technical support to licensed installers for every product we sell
  - A huge range of service lines at competitive pricing - A.S.S. is your one-stop shop

A complete range of products is stocked at all times. Personal and technical assistance is provided by qualified technicians, which is a feature of A.S.S. service.

Full workshop facilities are located on site, ensuring fast, economical repairs and modifications. Design and manufacture of special systems are also available on request.

A.S.S. is proud to be 100% Australian owned and operated and supports other Australian companies as much as possible.